Introduction to China – Beijing and Xi’an

The land of the Middle Kingdom, with over a thousand years of history. This is China. It is here that visitors can fast forward in one day through centuries. Beijing, as one of the six ancient cities in China, has been the heart and soul of politics and society throughout its long history. It is here where you can discover ancient history in, for amongst others, the Forbidden City and on the Great Wall.

Xi’an, in the mid-east of the country, about 1h50mins flight from Beijing, offers a lively mix of Muslim with Chinese culture and a wonderful visit to the famed Terracotta Warriors. Book with us and we’ll astound you with China’s contrasts and grand history.

Tian’anmen Square is the largest public square in the world. It has long been a gathering place for locals and visitors alike. On the north side of the square is Tian’anmen Gate (the Rostrum). It was from the balcony of the Rostrum on 1 October 1949 where Mao Zedong, chairman of the Communist Party, proclaimed the foundation of the People's Republic of China.

The Forbidden City (Imperial Palace), directly behind the Rostrum, was home to 24 emperors, beginning with its creator Emperor Yongle in 1420. This lasted until the last Qing emperor, Puyi, left in 1924. The massive entire complex consists of 8,706 rooms in which an estimated 8,000 to 10,000 people lived including 3,000 eunuchs, as well as maids and concubines, all within 170 acres.
