The 11th Annual McCarthy Symposium at Uber
Trademark Law and its Challenges
March 27, 2020
Pre-Event Dinner at SF City Club, March 26, 2020

The world's premier trademark, branding, and consumer behavior conference comes to San Francisco on March 27, 2020 with a full-day of networking and educational panels on cutting edge IP topics including:

1. Regulating Advertising on the Platforms - Google, Amazon, Twitter, Facebook, Alibaba, Reddit, Instagram and YouTube
2. Trademark Law's Built-In Tensions with Marketing Strategy Around Descriptive Marks
3. Update on International Trademark Law
4. Roundup on ICANN
5. Providing Trademark Damages

Plus keynotes:
Competing in an AI Economy
Marco Ianelli - Professor, Harvard Business School, Founder, Keystone Strategy

The Changing and Challenging Landscape of in-house Trademark Lawyers
Rafa Gutierrez - Director, IP at Uber in conversation with others

March 27
Symposium at Uber
$175

March 26
Pre-event networking dinner at SF City Club
$75

Free for Golden Gate University students

REGISTER NOW

Sponsored by

Cooley
MarkMonitor
Keystone
Sc consect

The McCarthy Institute is the world premier academic center on trademark and branding issues and is located at Golden Gate University in San Francisco, CA.