THEME ISSUE

May 25, 2022 | Vol. 77 Issue 19

The 2022 Annual Meeting Live+ educational program featured seven thematic tracks. Covering topics such as the business of brands, corporate social responsibility, innovation and technology, professional development, and others, the program was designed to speak directly to how the industry is changing and what it means for brand professionals today. This was mirrored in the INTA Daily News, INTA's official publication covering the Annual Meeting which was published this year in both print and digital formats.

As this is the first INTA Bulletin theme issue following the Annual Meeting, contained here is a selection of the most-read articles from the INTA Daily News. These articles are shared here courtesy of Newton Media. All daily editions of the 2022 INTA Daily News can be found here.
