The membership of the Association shall consist of Regular Members and Associate Members. In addition to these categories, the Board of Directors may establish or terminate other categories and sub-categories of membership, including for special constituencies, as necessary to accomplish the objectives of the Association. The identification of and procedures for establishing such categories and sub-categories shall be defined in the INTA Code of Policies, which shall be approved by the Board of Directors. As used in these Bylaws, the term "Member" refers to a Regular Member, Associate Member, and such other categories and sub-categories of membership as may be established by the Board of Directors. Nonprofit status is not a determinative factor for eligibility to be a Regular or Associate Member.

Each Regular Member, Associate Member, and other categories and sub-categories of membership, shall appoint in writing one of its directors, officers, employees, partners or firm members as its designee to act on its behalf with respect to membership matters (hereinafter "Designee"). Each Member may additionally appoint in writing one or more of its directors, officers, employees, partners or firm members as representatives of such Member for purposes of other matters relating to the Association, including but not limited to service on the Board of Directors, as an Officer, on a committee or otherwise as eligible and permitted by these Bylaws, and to establish and maintain membership (hereinafter "Representatives"). Any Person (as used in these Bylaws meaning an individual, firm, corporation or other legal entity) owning a trademark or other mark that is used in commerce to distinguish goods or services offered by that Person, or under the authority of that Person, shall be eligible to be a Regular
