

Deborah Hampton
2026 INTA President

Deborah A. Hampton holds the position of Trademark Team Leader at The Chemours Company. She is responsible for managing Chemours' brand portfolio and developing and implementing global strategies to protect and enforce trademarks against infringement and counterfeiting. Furthermore, she collaborates with her business colleagues to ensure that brands are properly maintained and in alignment with corporate goals and objectives.

Ms. Hampton is a member of the Executive Board of the Wilmington (DE) Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., and serves as the chapter Parliamentarian. In 2024 she was elected to the University of Cincinnati Alumni Association's College of Arts & Sciences Alumni Advisory Board.

Ms. Hampton is featured in Chapter 8 of the book, Lessons from The Top Paralegal Experts: The 15 Most Successful Paralegals in America and What You Can Learn from Them, by Carole A. Bruno. She has served two terms on the Trademark Public Advisory Committee of the United States Patent and Trademark Office. Since 2017, Ms. Hampton has been consistently nominated and selected for World Trademark Review's WTR300: The World's Leading Corporate Trademark Professionals. Additionally, for the past six years, she has been recognized as one of World Trademark Review's Global Trademark Thought Leaders.

Ms. Hampton received her bachelor's degree in political science from the University of Cincinnati. She also received an ABA-Approved Paralegal Certificate from Adelphi University's now disbanded Paralegal Program.

In her role as INTA President, Ms. Hampton is Chair of the Board of Directors and Executive Committee. She is also a member of the INTA Women's Leadership Initiative Project Team.
