Why Register and Attend?

10,000+ IP Professionals Under One Roof for One Week:

With more than 10,000 IP professionals, business leaders, and government officials expected from 100+ jurisdictions, the INTA Annual Meeting is the only IP event this year where you can meet and interact with the leaders of the global IP community, including existing and prospective outside councils in one venue. Conduct strategy planning meetings with outside counsel to review existing or pressing matters.

Save More with Travel Discounts: Discounts are available with Alaska Airlines, Emirates, Lufthansa Group, Qatar Airways, SkyTeam, and United Airlines. (Further details are in your registration confirmation email. If you have already booked your travel, please work directly with your airline to apply available discounts.)

Exceptional Educational Programming centered on the Business of IP: Our Co-Chairs Jill Abasto (Qualcomm) and Okan Can (Deris) and the 2025 Annual Meeting Project Team have developed an exceptional educational program centered on “The Business of IP,” featuring three dynamic tracks: Business and Technology, Law and Policy, and Professional Development and Career Advancement. Stay ahead of the curve on cutting edge topics and earn CLE credits.

New in 2025! Exclusive Programming on Patents for Brand Professionals: On Tuesday, May 17, a series of 45-minute sessions will delve into the latest patent developments, strategies, and case studies. This will be followed by the Patent Professionals Reception.

FOR IN-HOUSE PRACTITIONERS:

New in 2025! Exclusive Programming for In-House Practitioners: We will introduce the “In-House Series” with seven dedicated educational sessions curated by in-house practitioners for in-house practitioners. These cut across all three program tracks. Additionally, for the first time, the In-House Practitioners Workshop will be at no charge, but pre-registration is required. Our Meeting will continue to feature the In-House Practitioners Reception and Anticounterfeiting Workshop.

Industry Insights and Benchmarking with Other In-House Practitioners: Gain insights through Workshops and events specifically curated for in-house practitioners.

Outstanding Add-On Events: Participate in various Workshops, receptions, more than 550 Table Topics, and numerous Business Development activities in the Convention Center and around San Diego.

Access to Resources: The Innovation Marketplace features numerous vendors and service providers offering tools and solutions designed to enhance IP management. Corporate representatives can discover resources that may benefit their organizations. The 2025 Annual Meeting will bring together more than 150 exhibitors showcasing the latest IP solutions.

Reputation Building: Representation at a prestigious event such as the INTA Annual Meeting enhances an organization’s visibility and reputation in the global IP community, showcasing its commitment to the effective protection and management of IP. By attending, you are able to enhance your profile within the global IP community.
