An Unmatched Return on Investment | INTA delivers twice the networking value and 40 percent higher educational impact than its competitors. This is an unmatched opportunity to save significantly on travel time and costs, as you can meet all your current associates and prospective contacts in one location for one week. This consolidation of meetings can lead to reduced expenses and greater efficiency for your organization. Learn more.

Save More with Travel Discounts | Airlines: Discounts are available with Air Canada, Air France, Air India, Singapore Airlines, Delta, Eurostar, Lufthansa Group, Qatar Airways, and United Airlines. If you have already booked your travel, please contact your airline directly to apply available discounts. Learn More.

Hotels: INTA has negotiated discounted rates at all 56 properties in our official hotel block. You must register for the Annual Meeting before reserving your hotel room within INTA's block to secure these rates. Learn more.

A World-Class Educational Programming | Our Co-Chairs Tanya Fickenscher (Major League Baseball) and Lara Kayode (O. Kayode & Co) and the 2026 Annual Meeting Project Team have designed an innovative and globally focused educational program featuring 50+ sessions across three dynamic tracks: Law & Policy; Business of Intangibles; and Technologies Shaping the Future of IP.

Complementing these tracks are 10 daily keynotes, a dedicated In-House Practitioners series, and two specialized series covering Patents and Professional Development & Career Advancement. Additional formats include workshops, academic sessions, and interactive experiences such as Flash Mentoring and Law Firm Idea Exchanges. Learn more.

Back in 2026! The Exclusive In-House Practitioners Series | Enjoy tailored content designed by and for in-house counsel, offering a dedicated forum to address the unique challenges and opportunities of in-house trademark practice. This includes the In-House Practitioners Reception and Anticounterfeiting Workshop (which is exclusive to in-house practitioners and government officials).

Industry Insights and Benchmarking with Other In-House Practitioners: Gain insights through workshops and events specifically curated for in-house practitioners.

Boundless Opportunities for Business Development (BD) and Networking at Excel London | The 2026 Annual Meeting offers an unparalleled array of networking and business development (BD) opportunities, including INTA Business Suites (see below), the all-new Corporate Lounge, hospitality events, advertising opportunities, and direct engagement with event sponsors and exhibitors at the Innovation Marketplace.

Registrants can also join 350 Table Topics discussions, 100+ affiliate events, BD excursions, the BD Lounge, community networking sessions, 10 speed networking events, and more than 10 receptions—ensuring countless opportunities to connect, collaborate, and build lasting relationships.
