Perspectives

Interview: INTA CEO Etienne Sanz de Acedo Deems 2021 and 2022 ‘Exciting and Promising’

INTA CEO Etienne Sanz de Acedo reflects on a “challenging, difficult, exciting, and promising” 2021 and previews what lies ahead for INTA in 2022.

Read More >

Pro Bono Clearinghouse Spotlight: Helping a Musician Protect His Stage Name
Musician Joe Brady and INTA member Chris Casavale discuss their experience working together to protect Mr. Brady’s stage name, Ender Wright, as a trademark.

Read More >

He Hīkoi Taitu: Aotearoa (New Zealand) Marches Slowly Toward Protection of Indigenous Rights

New Zealand’s progress toward a comprehensive long-term solution for the recognition and protection of Indigenous rights has been slow. There is a commitment to get there, but a viable and appropriate framework still seems a long way off.

Read More >

Law & Practice

ARGENTINA Congress Passes Front-of-Pack Labeling Law

MEXICO Court Halts Implementation of Brand Restrictions

UNITED STATES Liability for Damages for Online Infringement

INTA News

Enforcing Designs Globally: Same or Different?
Survey Explores Remedies

INTA's Designs Committee conducted a survey among its members to help INTA develop a position on the harmonization of design remedies for its model design law guidelines and to help understand both the similarities and differences between the available remedies for design infringement across jurisdictions.

Read More >

INTA Releases Report on Strengthening ASEAN Anticounterfeiting Enforcement

INTA recently published a research report that looks at current IP enforcement efforts in Southeast Asia and provides recommendations for governments in the ASEAN region and elsewhere that are seeking to bolster IP protection in their jurisdiction.

Read More >

USPTO Implements Trademark Modernization Act

Regulations issued by the United States Patent and Trademark Office that implement key provisions under the Trademark Modernization Act of 2020 went into effect December 18, 2021. INTA's comments strongly influenced numerous rule changes.

Read More >

Community News

How I Maximize My INTA Membership: Interview with Orietta Blanco

Orietta Blanco (Miniño, Dominican Republic) credits being an INTA member with giving her “a voice” within the community and “opening many doors.” As managing partner at her firm, she also values the Association’s resources and opportunities to network with colleagues around the world.

Read More >

INTA Multimedia

Inside INTA

YouTube

INTA India Consultant Gauri Kumar shares INTA’s policy priorities and key activities in India in 2022.

Watch Now

Membership Renewal

YouTube

Take a walk with INTA’s Director of IT and Digital Business Solutions, Ryan O’Donnell, to hear why you should renew your INTA membership.

Watch Now

INTA Social

Thailand’s Cabinet approves a ban on the import-export of infringed goods.

Read More >

From friendship to business development, Belonging to INTA Means... so much to the 35,000 individuals who participate in our Association. Remain part of our robust community and renew your membership today.

Read More >

Creators are turning to social media to shame #brands for using allegedly plagiarized work without attribution.

Read More >

INTA Events

2022 Annual Meeting Live+
Available now to INTA members

Enforcement
An International Litigation Guide
Trademark litigation, from pre-filing requirements to remedies.

Trademark Cancellations
International Practice and Procedures
Covers topics such as:
• availability of cancellation proceedings
• applicable grounds
• venue for bringing such proceedings
• many more!

Quick-Start Trademark Chart
Providing “quick hit” answers to 18 frequently asked trademark questions across more than 120 jurisdictions.

INTA Bulletins Editorial Board

© 2022 International Trademark Association (INTA) All rights reserved.
675 Third Avenue, 3rd Floor | New York, NY 10017
www.inta.org
Unsubscribe